BRIEFLETS.

—Council to-night.
—Quiet among the churches yesterday.
—Who shall decide when thermometers disagree?
—The Janesville Guards meet to muster to-night.
—The Water Works Committee meet again to-night.
—There will be a glass ball shoot at Bunker Hill next Saturday at 1 o'clock.
—Mr. H. M. Hart has a crab-apple tree which has now upon its limbs both blossoms and fruit.

—Four or five copies of the Daily Gazette of the date of Saturday, July 27, are wanted at this office.

—A culprit was lost last night on South Main street. The finder will please leave it at the Gazette office.

—Mrs. George Kimball, and her two daughters, are now visiting in the city, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Conant.

—One of Janesville's citizens was attacked by yellow fever, but it was over twenty years ago, when he was South on a visit.

—There is one tramp locked up in jail who boasts of having been in every jail in Massachusetts. He claims Dover, New Hampshire, as his native place.

—Attention Janesville Guards! There will be a meeting this evening at Elie's hall at 8 o'clock sharp, at which every member is expected to be present.

—Mike Doran, of Milwaukee, was one of the names on the police docket to-day, and Justice Pritchard coolly scratched down with his quill $1 and costs. Drunk and hooting on the streets. Paid.

—R. S. Tutill and family, of Chicago, are spending a few weeks in the city. Mr. Tutill is the City Attorney for that great metropolis, and fills that position with marked ability and efficiency, and to the general satisfaction of all.

—A Chicago detective is said to have been the one who worked up the case in which the boys were fined for defacing the High School building. The Board of Education will not be called on to pay the $100 reward.

—Miss Lavina Goodell sends us from the East a very interesting letter, which will be found elsewhere in this paper. She is slowly recovering, and expects to return to this city in September for a time, though probably not permanently.

—A party of boys camping near Pope springs last evening tried to smudge away the mosquitoes by burning rags dipped in kerosene. Their tent caught fire and before the flames could be extinguished the top and back of their canvas house was ruined.

—Two travelling men, while coming from the depot to their hotels Saturday night, having just arrived on a freight train, were stopped by some tramps who menaced them, but who finding that the runners would not be bluffed, hastily decamped.

—The father of one of the girls, whose name was too freely used by the crayonites at the High School building, was hunting up the members of the quartet this afternoon. [On meeting one of them, he hit him a clip, and went on in search of the others. No other knock-downs are yet reported.]

—Rev. Mr. Roberts, late pastor of the Baptist church in this city, has met with a most kindly reception in Philadelphia. His new church shipped a $100 bill into his hand as he stepped off the platform of the car, and also gave him about $100 worth of carpets for his parlors and halls, and paid him a month's salary in advance. He deserves every whit of such cordiality.

—John Dowd and James Keenan were lounging at the corner of Milwaukee and Main streets yesterday, when they got in a dispute over a chew of tobacco, and from words came to blows. Marshal Keating who happened along the other side of the street, rushed over, separated the two before any very serious damage was done, and learning that Dowd struck the first blow placed him under arrest, but afterwards released him, as Keenan said he did not care to prosecute him.

—A sad example of the baneful effects of opium eating was presented in Justice Pritchard's court room this morning. His name was George Glass and he has lived in this vicinity for many years. Some years ago he had trouble with a sore on his leg, and it is supposed that he got into this habit by using opiate to lessen the pain. He has since indulged in the habit until he is a complete wreck. His complexion is a sign and read of all men, and when he appeared before the bar this morning he was in such a lethargic, dreamy state as to be hardly responsible for what he said or did. He acknowledged himself a pauper, and was sent to the county poor house for custody.

—Saturday night Howard Welch and Bloom Briers, brothers-in-law, met at Carl's grocery store, and were boasting of what each could do in the harvest field. Briers thought he could bind faster than Welch and his bird man together, and offered to back his assertion by a $10 bet. He finally backed out, and Welch offered then to bet him $100 to $10. The dispute went on until Bier clinched his fist, threatened Welch and the latter struck him. Mr. Carl jumped over the counter and separated them before any serious damage was done. Brier had his nose scratched some. Soon after Brier's father tackled Welch, and they took a tussle over a barrel, but family peace was finally restored.

—Pat Kanouka, of La Prairie, was in the city Saturday, and drank too freely of cider and bitters. He was reeling along Milwaukee street with a new pitch fork which he carelessly swung from side to side with a strong disregard for the safety of life and limb of his fellow citizens. The Marshal spied him and went for him. He said he was hunting for his team. The Marshal told him he would take the fork, and go with him to find the horses, but Pat objected. The Marshal grabbed the fork and a tussle ensued. Constable Drake came along and after the Marshal had thrown Pat down, Drake got the fork away from him, and he was leaded into a wagon and taken to the jail. Last night he was sobered up, and allowed to return home.

BOUND TO DIE.

Three Unsuccessful Attempts to Commit Suicide, and All Within Twelve Hours—The Man Still Lives, Moves, and Has His Belongings.

Yesterday forenoon while most of the Sunday worshippers were in the churches, a man was seen to approach the river bank near the lower bridge. He carefully pulled off his hat, coat and shoes and walked out into the river up to his neck, and then deliberately threw himself under water. He came to the surface, however, and Dr. Finch, who chanced to see him, rushed into the water and pulled him ashore. He said that he had no friends and wanted to die. His rescuer tried to reason with him but found that the man's mind was in such an unsound shape as to render this useless. While they stood on the bank talking, the man made another rush toward the river, and again tried to get drowned, but Finch rescued him a second time, and then called to his assistance some officers who led him down to jail and locked him up. He appeared to be completely beside himself, apparently from having been using too much and too strong drink. He insisted after being locked up, that he wanted to die, and that he had nothing to live for in this world. He said he had no money and no friends. While in his cell last night he tore up his shirt into strips, made a sort of rope of them, and tied one end around his neck, while the other he placed over the top bar in his cell door, and was just getting ready to swing off into eternity when the officers discovered what he was doing, and hastened to save him, making three unsuccessful attempts within about twelve hours, to rid himself of life.

The man is comparatively a stranger in the city. He came here, he said, from Chicago, and for a while worked in George Reum's butcher shop, and lately has been doing some little work in Hatch's shop. But little is known of him, but it is generally agreed that too much whisky caused his desperate despondency. This morning he insisted that he had already committed suicide and kept crying "I am dead," "I am dead." He was mistaken about it though.

DEFACING A BUILDING.

In the account of the outrageous way in which the blackboards of the High School building were defaced with obscene drawings, and allusions to girls and ladies of high respectability, the Gazette stated that the lightning would strike where it was least expected. The prediction has been fulfilled. Four of Janesville's young men, who are well known in business and social circles here, were arrested Saturday, and this morning their cases came to trial. Sobye and Fisher pleaded guilty, remarking that "it was only in part however." Holdredge and Bristol pleaded not guilty, but for some time talked the matter over with their lawyers, and finally admitted their guilt; but claimed that the charge against them was only true in part. The plea of guilty being entered, Attorney Bates spoke briefly in behalf of the young men, claiming that they were of respectable families, and having all attended the High School in years past, they felt somewhat at home there, and did not realize that they were doing anything so outrageous in entering the building.

State's Attorney Sale replied that this only aggravated the case, that the young men knew better, and had no excuse for their actions, and that the fact that they had been so well brought up, and educated at the public schools, made the crime more severe.

Justice Pritchard fixed the fines at $30 each, which the young men paid and went their way.

The game Saturday afternoon between the Janesville Mutuals and Waukesha resulted again in favor of the home nine by 14 to 3.

The Cucumatis defeated the Providence nine Saturday by 4 to 0.

The Bostonians defeated the Milwaukee by 3 to 2.

The Chicago defeated the Buffalo Saturday 5 to 4.

The Rochester defeated the Indianapolis Saturday by 4 to 1.

THE WEATHER.

The thermometer at 7 o'clock this morning stood at 75 degrees and at 2 o'clock at 81 degrees above. Clear.

The indications are, in the upper lake region, upper Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys, partly cloudy weather, occasional rains, variable winds, stationary or lower pressure and temperature.

SERVICE OF SONG.

Choice Music at Court Street Church Last Evening.—An Able Sermon on "What is Truth?"

Court Street Methodist church last evening was the scene of another highly interesting song service. The auditorium was crowded even to the aisles. The musical part of the service was participated in by Miss Emma Baker, of Chicago, Mrs. St. John, Miss Martha Willey, Misses Eta and Ada Pond, Miss Estella Griswold, Miss Ada Holdredge, Miss Marion Willey, Miss Fannie London, Miss Terwilliger, Mrs. Church, and Messrs. Ben H. Grove, D. D. Bennett, Charles E. Church, John H. Bennett, Nick Smith, H. G. Arnold, and Clarence Clark. Mrs. J. D. King, presided at the organ, and handled that instrument with even more than usual skill.

The programme was of a high order and the opening, and closing anthems were really grand. "By Theme with Bliss," from Creation, which was sung at the concert Friday night, was given again last night, the duet being taken by Mrs. St. John and Mr. Grove. "Nearer My God to Thee," was one of the choicest renditions of the evening, it being by a quartet consisting of Miss Baker, Mrs. St. John, D. D. Bennett, and Mr. Ben Grove. Miss Baker carried the solo with fine effect. The piece is from Winchell, and is one of the finest arrangements we have heard of that old hymn, of which we never seem to weary.

Rev. Mr. Wheeler preached an excellent sermon, it being the close of a series of doctrinal discussions. He chose as his text "What is the Truth?" He deemed it better for man to be compelled to search after truth than to be the possessor of all truth. In hunting for truth men must not be mistaken for principles. Patriotism was still a virtue though there were Benedict Arnolds, and though the history of Christianity was belittled with bigotry and blurred with human failures, it did not follow that the principles themselves were not worthy of commendation.

Neither ancient culture nor modern science was alone able to answer the question of the text. Rome in the midst of its highest culture, was debauched, and the greatest of all Grecian thinkers had vile personal habits. The modern scientists could not tell the true origin and destiny of man, and could only allude to it in mystical unintelligible phrases. Nature itself did not answer the question.

If the sunshine told us of a God of love, the tempest contradicted this by indicating a God of wrath. There was some truth in geology, some truth in astronomy, and yet all truth was contained in neither. There was a great difference too in the value of different kinds of truth. Men did not at ways want to know the truth, especially if it imposed the duty of giving obedience, and of forsaking evil practices. The honest, earnest, enquirer would have no difficulty in getting an answer to the question, "What is truth?" No less a personage than the son of God had said: "If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine."

A BLAZE IN BLACK HAWK.

Saturday night the residence of Mrs. Brown, in Black Hawk, was totally destroyed by fire. The daughter had built a fire in the kitchen stove, and started out to meet her mother, who had been away from home. On returning together they found the house in a blaze, which could not be extinguished. It is supposed that coals fell out of the stove upon the floor and thus ignited. Much of the furniture was saved.

WARD CAUCUSES.

FIFTH WARD.

The voters of the Fifth Ward of Janesville, are requested to meet in caucus at Luther Clark's Carpenter Shop, on Milwaukee street, near the Davis house, at 8 o'clock p. m., on Tuesday evening, August 6th, to elect delegates to the Assembly Convention and transact such other business as may come before them.

By order of Committee, N. E. BENNETT, Chairman.

CITY NOTICES.

Money is Tight.

And when was it otherwise? The oldest man cannot remember. People are grumblers—all grumblers—ministers and laymen complain. Well, then, "times are dull, and money is tight," but haven't you got enough to buy a bottle of Spalding's, to keep your teeth clean and in mouth sweet, and help you enjoy life?

Money may be tight, but it is nothing to Spalding's Glue. That's the tightest thing out.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Ladies and Gentlemen will always find the most complete and reliable Stationery in the city and Chesterland's Bookstore, No. 29 Main street.

Liver is King.

The Liver is the imperial organ of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural result. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the Liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all persons afflicted with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint, and all the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the Liver and Stomach. Sample bottles to try, 10 cents. Postively sold in all towns on the Western Continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want.

Excessive Heat.

And unwholesome diet at this season of the year may speedily carry you to the grave. Parker's Ginger Tonic, by its corrective action on the entire digestive apparatus, will not only unfailingly cure Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholera Infantum, Colic, Cramps, Spasms, etc., but prevent those dangerous disorders from attacking the system. It may save your life, and should at once be kept in the house. This pleasant remedy is unequalled for teaching children, nursing mothers. Possessing many additional virtues of other valuable roots, it is far superior to Eucalyptus of Ginger, without their constipating effects, and while more invigorating than quinine never intoxicates, nor creates any desire for stimulants. It cures Dyspepsia and its varied symptoms of Headache, Nervousness, Palpitation of the Heart, Wakefulness, Sour Stomach, Constipation, Liver Disorders, Ferret Tongue, Low Spirits, Neuralgia and Rheumatic Pains, enables you to enjoy the fruits and vegetables of the season without fear, and gives comfort after a hearty meal. Buy a $1.00 bottle of your druggist, A. J. Roberts, or a sample bottle at 15 cents, and test its extraordinary merits.

"Dobbins' Electric Soap."

Having obtained the secret of this celebrated Soap for Janesville and vicinity, I append the opinion of some of our best people to its merits.

I have washed with Dobbins' Electric Soap made by L. L. Cragin & Co., Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and pronounce it the best soap I have ever used. The rapidity and ease with which it enables one to do one's washing is really surprising. Boiling the clothes is entirely unnecessary, and so much rubbing is needed. I would not be without it.

NELLIE KENNEDY, I have no hesitation in saying that no housekeeper should be without Dobbins' Electric Soap. I can heartily recommend it, it is a charm in the wash tub.

ELIZA P. LELAND, As a time, labor and money saving article, I take pleasure in recommending Dobbins' Electric Soap to my neighbors. It promises wonders and does all it promises.

MARY YONKANS, I take pleasure in calling attention to the testimonials, as we have just made arrangements with the manufacturers in Philadelphia, so that we can supply the trade at their lowest Philadelphia price.
